TYPE OF PROGRAM

5 US credits – 10 ECTS Credit-Course / 4 week / 90 contact hours program.

Taylor made programs available upon request .*

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The GO UANDES – January and July Programs “Intensive Spanish Language Courses” aim to improve the student’s language competence as well as gaining insight into the Chilean and Latin American culture. The academic content will be presented in four units of study that cover different areas and allow participants to get to know the country and the region while enhancing language skills.

There is a unit per week, the units being:

- Unit I: Chilean Cuisine and Culinary Arts
- Unit II: Chilean Origins
- Unit III: Chilean Recent History
- Unit IV: Chilean Literature, Music and Art

Levels available:

- B1: Intermediate Intensive Spanish Course Prerequisite: Elementary Spanish or two semesters of Spanish

The courses will only be imparted if the minimum required number of students is met.*

REQUIREMENTS FOR STUDENTS

Young professionals, undergraduate students and graduate students from different backgrounds, study areas and countries are welcome to participate.

DAILY ACTIVITIES

Lectures and visits are arranged Monday to Thursday from approximately 9:00am to 1:30pm. Each week will follow a similar format.

- Mondays: Lectures and class activities.
- Tuesdays: Faculty-lead community excursions based on the academic unit. Students will have the opportunity to apply the skills they have been learning as part of the academic program. Each visit will be part of a group project focused on the interaction with locals in a community context.
- Wednesdays: lectures and class activities.
- Thursdays: Class activities that give closure to the unit.
- Fridays: Lectures and class activities.

During the afternoon, students will normally have free time. The programs will have a student coordinator or cultural immersion ambassador who will suggest and organize optional activities for the afternoons. During the weekends, the group will have free time for personal and touristic interests.

CULTURAL VISITS AND IMMERSION IN CHILEAN CULTURE

- Unit I: Chilean Cuisine and Culinary Arts: Central Market and “La Vega” Market.
- Unit II: Chile Origins: Visit to Precolombian Museum and Santa Lucía Hill.
- Unit III: Chilean Recent History: La Moneda Presidential Palace.
