REQUIREMENTS EXCHANGE AT UANDES

Easter Island

PSYCHOLOGY

North of Chile

TRANSVERSAL REQUIREMENTS UANDES

These requirements are the same for all international students applying for an exchange at the Universidad de los Andes, whether for a semester or a year.

- > Passport valid throughout the entire duration of the international student's stay in Chile.
- > Letter of Commitment signed by the international student. This document will be sent to the student along with the link to complete the online application form. However, you can find it on the UANDES website, in the international section (<https://www.uandes.cl/internacional>).
- > ID size photo of the international student, which must be in color and recent.
- > Academic records of the international student from all his/her university years: the document must include the current year in which the international student is at his/her home university, subjects taken and corresponding grades.
- > Motivation letter written by the international student: extension of one page and must be written in English or Spanish (depending on which courses the student has selected to take at UANDES).
- > Selection of a maximum of 4 courses to study at UANDES.

All this information must be included in the Online Application Form that will be sent to the international students nominated to come to UANDES for an exchange. This form must be completed and sent by the student himself before the deadline:

- > For applications for an exchange during the first UANDES academic semester (March to July), the deadline for completing the form is: mid-November of the year prior to the exchange.
- > For applications to an exchange during the second UANDES academic semester (from August to December), the deadline to complete the form is: mid-April of the same year of the exchange.

SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

PSYCHOLOGY

These requirements are specific to coming on an academic exchange to the UANDES School of Psychology.

- > International students who are not studying Psychology may apply only for theoretical subjects but always subject to confirmation from the School.
- > International students who are currently studying Psychology may opt for theoretical subjects, clinical practice or professional practice, but not mixed.
- > For international students applying for clinical or professional practices, it is a requirement:
 - > Apply only for the second academic semesters (from August to December).
 - > An evaluation will be made of the student's Academic Records to see if he/she meets the required subjects previously approved.
 - > Courses from lower levels cannot be selected.
 - > Specify the request in the online application form in the section "Course Selection".
 - > There will be a maximum number of places per semester.
- > Language certificate:
 - > Spanish B2 level: for all international students whose native language is not Spanish and who select subjects in Spanish.

The UANDES School of Psychology will carry out an evaluation of the courses selected by the international students applying, along with a review of their Academic Records and may make changes if deemed necessary.
